Cooking Your Way Through...

Memphis & New Orleans

March 7-11, 2011

With

Monday., March 7- Your adventure begins when you board your motorcoach in South Bend and begin your journey to the Old South. Stops for breaks and lunch (on your own) will be made on the way down and before you know it you'll be in Memphis, Tennessee. Your hotel for the next two nights, The Holiday Inn Select, is located right in the heart of town and just steps away from famous Beale Street. Tonight you can explore the city that made "The Blues" famous. At supper, be sure you try fried pickles.

Tuesday, March 8 - Your local guide will pick you up at the hotel this morning to begin a tour of Memphis.

Sights will include the Mississippi Riverfront, Cotton Row, Beale Street, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and The National Civil Rights Museum at the Lorraine Motel. The tour will end at Graceland where you will have an opportunity to explore the home, grounds and museum of Elvis Presley. Snack bar service is available here for a light lunch. This afternoon you're off to the Viking Cooking School where you will learn some of the secrets of Memphis Barbecue. Your hands on, in the kitchen, experience will result in the dinner you enjoy this evening.

B/D

Wednesday, March 9 - After breakfast, check out of your hotel and continue South to Natchez, Mississippi, one of the very important commerce centers during the Civil War. You will be served an elegant lunch at Magnolia Hall, one of the most beautiful Antebellum Homes in the area. Following lunch, tour Stanton Hall, before continuing your drive to New Orleans.

Your hotel for the next two nights is The Inn on Bourbon Street, located right in the heart of the French Quarter (pictured left).

Explore the French Quarter this evening and enjoy the atmosphere of this very famous Southern City.

Thursday, March 10 - A tour of the city is included this morning. It won't take long for you understand why Hurricane Katrina devastated this city. The mixing of French, Creole and Cajun make this a very interesting place, indeed.

Following your tour you will go to The House on Bayou Road and the New Orleans Cooking Experience. You will learn the history and culture of the recipes along with some "how-to" information. The group will rotate between two chefs, each of which will prepare two different dishes. Return to the French Quarter for your last evening in New Orleans.

B/D

Friday, March 11 - Alas, you knew it had to end sometime. Following breakfast, check out of your hotel and begin the trek back north. Stops will be made for meals and breaks along the way. Return to South Bend late this evening.
