OLD BUSINESS

None discussed

Chili Cookoff Chair – Ralph Pieniazkiewicz

- Chili Cookoff date is set for Sunday, Oct 3 at the Martins Super Market in Granger.

NEW BUSINESS

- Chef Don Miller was approached by National Olympic Team Leader, Steve Jilleba CMC at a previous function and was given the information that the culinary team would possibly not be able to compete because of no finances to support them. Chef Don mentioned how our South Bend chapter is financially blessed and could help this team for all the right reasons. He is asking on behalf of the Olympic team for $10,000. Olympics are still 2 years away but finances are needed for practice sooner than that. Chef Don is asking that the chapter ‘sleep on it and possibly we could break it into installments which would come out of the Emergency Fund as it could be considered a ‘National Emergency’. The chapter can start of ways to replenish rapidly through the years. The overhead is probably over $100,000 and Chef Miller said he would try retrieve a total cost by the next meeting. Chef Greg Beachey commented on how he believes Steve Jilleba to be very fiscally responsible. Chef Alan Sielder was also positive reinforcement for support. Chef Miller asked that the chapter give a month to think. Chef Charu Pant said he had just given to the culinary team and that it is easy to do by just clicking on the Event Tab on the ACF website. Chef Greg Beachey agreed that it would be great for our chapter to contribute.
