Editor: Karen Reynolds, CEC Photography: chapter member contributors

Thank you to The Feast and Brent Spring for hosting the September meeting.

Thank you to John Twichell for his chocolate tempering demonstration.

The culinarian's code was read by Sue Ellen Reed.

The minutes printed in the August newsletter were accepted by members as posted.

Welcome to the guests that accompanied two of the members tonight.

The nominations for chapter officers are open until the end of the October meeting.

Ralph and Elise report a good turnout for the annual chili cook off. There are 21 applicants this year. Anyone soliciting donations for t-shirts should have their sponsors logo information turned in to Elise no later than September 16, 2011. Elise will send the updated press release to the corresponding secretary. Waste Management has agreed to supply trash containers for $5/ box. The ideas was discussed to set up tables and chairs near the band so that patrons have a place to sit.

Sue Ellen Reed has earned her certified pastry chef and certified culinarian certificates. Melissa Bradley has earned her certified culinarian certificate.

Motion to adjourn 7:50 p.m.
